Weekly Highlights

Week One

- None submitted.

Week Two

- Watertown defeated Oconomowoc (37-34) for the first time since the fall of the Berlin wall. The last victory occurred in 1989, and was previously Watertown's only victory over Oconomowoc since 1980 when Watertown captured its last sole WLT Conference Team Title.
- Hartford began their WLT season with their 31st straight conference dual meet victory as they defeated West Bend East 65-9.

Week Three

- Waupun had a very strong showing against Hartford, but the Orioles proved to be too deep as they sailed past the Warriors 46-21. Coach Kreuser observed, "Waupun is a solid team and will surprise many people in our league. They are very strong in the upper weights."
- Freshman Tyler George from Beaver Dam managed to upset WISCOs Mark Greschner 4-3 in the 135 pound weight class.
- Freshman Jake Bublitz of Watertown upset West Junior Bryan Hembel 3-0 to shift the momentum in the dual as Watertown was trailing West 9-24. Watertown went on to score 5 straight pins through the middle to steal the win.

Week Four

- Watertown senior Joe Fendt earned his 100th and 101st career wins this week in dual meets versus Waukesha West and Beaver Dam.
- Beaver Dam freshman Tyler George (135) had a very strong showing in a dominating match over Watertown junior Aaron Abel in a 7-0 shutout to start the Watertown-Beaver Dam dual meet.
- Waupun edged Oconomowoc 39-38 in a hard fought battle. Five pins and strong performances in their upper weights carried the day as the Warriors knocked off the Coons to move into a tie for 3rd place with Beaver Dam.

Week Five

- The Crossface Newspaper was on hand at the Oconomowoc vs Hartford dual to present Hartford with the award for winning the 2002 WIAA State Individual Tournament. Brad Becker was home from UW Parkside where he is rated #8 in the Nation in Division II and Mike Schmidt was home from U of Minnesota where he is wrestling for the 2x National Champion Golden Gophers. Before a huge alumni night crowd the Orioles cranked out nine falls on their way to a 61-12 victory over a young Cooney squad.
- Wisconsin Lutheran defeated Watertown in an excellent showing. The teams split matches at 7 each, but the Vikings pulled out the victories on the strength of upsets at 135 and 152. WISCO avenged a similar upset of two years ago when Watertown (then ranked 7th in the conference) upset WISCO (then ranked 2nd).

Week Six

- Watertown junior, Ben Pero (26-1) moved up from 160 to 171 to wrestle West Bend East Senior, Josh Westphal (20-1 | 3rd at WIAA State tournament last year) during the Watertown - East dual meet. The match was for the number one position on the Lean and Mean. Both wrestlers executed nearly flawless matches, but Pero pulled off a takedown with 3 seconds left in regulation to pull off the 2-1 victory. Great job to both wrestlers!
- Oconomowoc junior Ryan Higgins chalked up his 100th takedown of the season in his match against WISCO's Jon Popp.
- Hartford junior, Kevin Blau, upset West Bend senior Joe Doro in the 189 pound match at West Bend 8-5. Blau improved to 17-9 overall. Doro is 22-4.

Week Seven

- Hartford secured their 3rd consecutive dual meet conference championship, and their 36th consecutive WLT dual meet victory by defeating Beaver Dam 52-17. Congratulations to the wrestlers and coaching staff on their top notch program.
- For the second year in a row, Waupun and Watertown have tied. The tie puts both teams in second place in conference standings, but with the final week of competition stacked in Waupun's favor (versus West Bend East), and against Watertown (versus Hartford), all Waupun likely needs to do is win to secure a second place finish on the season. However, reliable sources indicate that Watertown has been practicing their double top secret, "hey Hartford, your shoe's untied" move all week, and you never know what will happen! :)
- Beaver Dam sophomore Justin Wickersham has settled any doubts about his dominance in scoring a technical fall over Hartford junior Matt Bourgeois during their dual meet. After an earlier thrashing of Port Washington wrestler, Barber, Justin is one of the wrestlers to watch in the WLT coming into the tournament season. Port Washington coach Eric Burke said that Wickersham is "definitely the toughest 119 pounder" that he has seen all year. Congratulations Justin.

Week Eight

- None submitted.
